LONDON TROOPS MADE ASSAULT ON JERUSALEM

Turks Driven Out at Point of the Bayonet With Terrible Losses

FLOWERS SHOWERED ON SOLDIERS ENTERING CITY

Atrocities of Turks Who Imprisoned Or Executed
Allies' Sympathizers

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Dec. 17.—In attacks preceding the surrender of Jerusalem the Turks employed storming troops in successive assaults on Nebi Samuel, northwest of the Holy City, then held by London troops, according to a Reuter dispatch from British headquarters in Palestine. The dispatch sent by airplane gives details of the capture and the entry into Jerusalem.

The final Turkish attack was preceded by such a heavy shelling that it appeared the enemy was confident the British would be blown off the summit, but all their attacks were repulsed successfully. The Turks had a strong line west, south and northeast of Jerusalem. They were well provided with machine guns and their artillery dominated the crests over which the British should have no advance.

Turkish guns placed just outside the city walls made it impossible to reply to their fire without endangering the town.

"A torrential rain made the roads impassable," the correspondent continues, "while a chilly east wind pierced the sodden soldiers to the bone. The problems of supply and transport almost drove us to despair.
The camels were unable to keep a foothold on the slippery paths. Nevertheless the food and ammunition supply was maintained fully."

"On the night of December 7 when our attack began the men moved up under cover of darkness, the attack pivoting on Nebi Samuel, from which the Londoners advanced eastward toward Jerusalem while other troops ascended the Hebron road, threatening the town from the south."

"They found Hebron evacuated but encountered resistance around Bethlehem, where the Turks also had posted guns so that counter battery work would endanger the sacred village. Our troops, however, pressed forward and by noon of the eighth were two miles north of Bethlehem.
The Londoners had a hard task on the steep slopes of the Judean hills, where it was impossible to bring field guns to their support but some mountain batteries and howitzers, rendered magnificent service and by seven o'clock in the morning the Londoners had stormed and captured all the enemy works west of the town. The Turks still held the last line on the ridge overlooking Jerusalem having posted numerous machine guns in the houses of the Jewish and German colonists in the furthest outskirts of the town. The position was a charged late in the afternoon of the eighth."

"The magnificent feat was crowned with complete success and the Turks were driven out at the point of the bayonet. The survivors bolted to either side of the town. Their losses were enormous."

"During the night the Turks withdrew to the north and east of the city and at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 9th day the mayor and chief of police came out with a flag of truce and surrendered the town."

"Acceptance of the surrender was made formally at noon without actually entering the city until pickets were posted to prevent surprises.
Meantime our troops went through the suburbs northward, being subjected to machine gun fire from the Mount Olivet region and Mount Scopus. The ridge of Mount Scopus, north of the city, was stormed with the bayonet and the Turks were driven from the Mount Olivet district. Big demonstrations of joy broke out when the general advanced to take the surrender of the city.
Flowers were showered on the troops and the populace clapped their hands to testify to the joy of deliverance from the hands of the oppressors."

"Further north the Turks were established in a long series of trenches around the village of Beitke. These trenches were carried with a rush and the British line advanced beyond the village. Welsh troops advancing from the south pushed across the road east of Jerusalem leading to Jericho and thrust back Turkish reinforcements advancing along this road to succor Jerusalem. In the course of all these operations they captured 1,000 prisoners in addition to 760 wounded Turks in hospitals in Jerusalem."

"Everybody suspected of sympathizing with the allies was imprisoned or killed. Many persons were executed. Among these was the Mufti of Zaza. Belonging to a distinguished Arab family. All aged suspects were sent away but the American colony of about 300 was not molested. It did noble work in relieving distress aided by funds from America."

"When the United States broke off relations with Turkey these funds were discontinued. Nevertheless the members of the colony persisted in the good work to the best of their ability and between January and

MILITARY TRANSPORT TRUCK JUST ESCAPES ROLLING DOWN ALPS

Caught on Italian Alpine front.

Transporting supplies over the Alps is one of the "joys" of the Italian armies. Hairbreadth escapes become commonplace after a few days of the big transport trucks. The truck in the photo stopped just in time to

OHIO IS COLDEST PLACE IN THE U. S. COAL IS UNCERTAIN

Columbus, Dec. 17.—With Ohio the coldest spot in the United States today, with two exceptions—Vermont and New Hampshire—the state fuel administration sent urgent calls to Washington and to F. C. Baird, head of the operators' lake pool, asking that West Virginia coal be rushed to Ohio at once to relieve dire distress reported in the Miami valley counties.

At the same time, C. F. Mayer, executive secretary of the state administration, stated that appeals were coming into his office for coal from all parts of the state. It was impossible to tell, he said, just what assistance can be given.
While zero weather prevailed today at Cincinnati and other parts of southwestern Ohio temperatures were somewhat higher in other parts of the state and some relief was promised when a report coming from the weather bureau here said that by tomorrow it would be appreciably warmer. The thermometers registered two above zero at Columbus, two above at Dayton, 10 above at Toledo, and 12 above at Cleveland.

RELIEF FROM FUEL SHORTAGE.

Cleveland, Dec. 17.—Relief from fuel shortage that has caused intense suffering here for more than a week and which threatened to tie up all industry and street car service in the city was pouring in Cleveland this morning. Thousands of manufacturing plants which had been forced to close down Saturday resumed work this morning.

More than 6000 tons of bituminous coal from the lake freighter, Otto M. Reiss, which reached here yesterday from Lorain, was being unloaded today. This coal will be delivered to the Cleveland Electric Illuminating company, which supplies electric power to thousands of manufacturing plants and furnishes fuel to run two-thirds of the street cars in the city. One hundred and twenty-five carloads of coal also arrived here yesterday for the illuminating company.

Officials of the company now have a sufficient supply of coal on hand to keep their power plants working all of this week. In the meantime, thousands of tons of fuel is expected to arrive.
The steamer, G. J. Grammer, carrying 7000 tons of anthracite coal, also arrived yesterday and was being unloaded today. This coal will be distributed to domestic consumers, one ton to a family.

Mayor Harry L. Davis today wired President Wilson and Governor Corbitt of Ohio, asking that the state authorities be granted authority to exercise an emergency in dealing with the tense fuel and food situation.

"The city has had its hands tied long enough," said the message. "If the government expects the co-operation of the officials of this city in relieving the threatening situation, we must be empowered to act."
"Commissions appointed by the government to handle the food situation have asked the city's war board for an appropriation, but the city has had no opportunity to advise or aid in relieving conditions."

The mayor said that the board will not appropriate a dollar until assurance is had that city officials may have some hand in dealing with the threatening situation.

COAL FAMINE TO BE BROKEN.

New York, Dec. 17.—New York's coal famine will be broken in a few days unless weather conditions interfere, fuel administrators and railroad officials declared today. Reeve Schley, fuel administrator, stated that the crisis already had been passed with the arrival here yesterday of 20,000 tons. Before night, Mr.

Schley said, he expected that another 25,000 tons would be received by barges from New Jersey ports. In addition, 50,000 tons were at Tidewater. Mr. Schley asserted that the only problem was that of transportation.

ASK MINERS TO FOREGO HOLIDAYS.

Washington, Dec. 17.—To keep coal production at a maximum, Fuel Administrator Garfield is preparing to appeal to operators and miners to forego the usual Christmas and New Year's holidays. Every idle day in the mines costs the country nearly 2,000,000 tons of fuel.

Authority to shut down industries, if necessary, to supply householders with coal, was granted by the fuel administration to W. K.
Prudden, federal fuel administrator for Michigan. Many Michigan cities are said to be almost entirely without supplies for domestic needs.

The situation in the middle west where coal weather and lack of fuel has brought much suffering, was gone over at a conference today between Dr. Garfield and F. C.
Baird, in charge of the fuel administration of rail transportation and coal distribution. Mr. Baird reported conditions improving somewhat, although there is a great congestion of coal cars at some terminals.

LEHMAN TRIAL PROCEEDS WITH JUROR VERY ILL

Wauseon, O., Dec. 17.—Although he is ill, Juror George Bachman, former, residing south of Wauseon, reported for duty this morning at the trial of Frederick Lehman, accused of having, on the night of last September 16, murdered his young wife, Grace Lehman, because of his love. It is alleged, for Mrs. Alice Fenton, the pretty wife of a neighbor.
Bachman has a heavy cold and symptoms of a grippé, but told the court "he guessed he could it all right."

Judge H. Wolfe announced the trial would proceed by easy stages until Bachman is back in normal condition.

Word was received at the courthouse this morning that Mrs. Mary Hall, who was operated on two weeks ago in Toledo, is on her way to Wauseon in an ambulance to testify for the state. Mrs. Hall is the wife of Clayde Hall, a brother of the murdered woman. Prosecutor Stahl says her testimony will be one of the most important presented by the state, but he does not disclose the nature of it.

The first witness today was Floyd Hall, another brother of Mrs. Lehman. Hall began his testimony Saturday, one of its sensational features being that pertaining to the finding of the revolver under the milk shed.
If Juror Bachman is able to sit on the jury the trial will proceed to its end and the taking of testimony will be finished this week, it is believed. If he becomes too ill to continue on the jury, a new jury would have to be impaneled and the entire case retried.

Prosecutor Stahl says he does not expect to spring any more sensations in direct evidence, but promises testimony of sensational nature in the examination of witnesses for the defense, chief of whom will be Lehman and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lehman.

Thus far the state has called 97 witnesses. The witnesses for the defense will be mostly character witnesses, attorneys for Lehman say, with the defendant himself as the star.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE ARMISTICE HAS BEEN SIGNED

GERMANS WITHDRAWING SOLDIERS FROM EAST

Conditions in Russia Are Not Improving—Strike
On in Moscow

London, Dec. 17.—The predominant fact as regards the Russian situation at the moment is the signing of an armistice, which is announced officially at the capitals of all the countries concerned.

The wording to special dispatches from Petrograd, every one there believes that a permanent peace between Russia and the central powers will result. Correspondents in general treat as negligible the undertaking of Germany and her allies not to withdraw troops from the eastern front.

A Petrograd dispatch to the Times says large masses of Germans already have been removed and that probably the German command has surrendered all its purposes to employ else where so that its plans are not likely to be damaged seriously.

The reported suicide during the armistice negotiations at Brest-Litovsk of the Russian General Sko-vostoff apparently has made a considerable sensation at Petrograd, although Russian national commissions are silent in regard to it.

The correspondent seeks to show that there is nothing to prove that he committed suicide, which is most improbable, and insinuates that he was murdered.

There is no confirmation of last week's official Bolshevik announcement regarding the arrest of General Kaledines. The situation in southern Russia continues to be obscure and news is fragmentary and contradictory. Fighting in the neighborhood of Kharkov is reported in a dispatch to the Daily Mail filed in Petrograd on Friday, although Kharkov itself is said to be calm.

The latest news from the elections to the constituent assembly, as supplied by the Bolsheviks, shows that of 237 delegates 85 are Bolsheviki, 115 social revolutionists, 100 constitutional democrats and the others scattering. About 80 delegates are now in Petrograd, but no further attempt has been made to hold a meeting.

The official denial of the story that Emperor Nicholas had escaped and the telegram from Tobolsk, received by the railway men's union saying the report was false, hold the field for the present against various rumors regarding the Emperor, who are becoming objects of increasing interest to a section of the population of Petrograd.

A strike at Moscow began yesterday.

The Petrograd railway men's union, according to a Reuter dispatch from the Russian capital, has received a telegram to the effect that the Maximalist troops in Odessa attacked the arsenal where the Ukrainian radicals was assembled.
The officials of the Rada summoned the Ukrainian troops quartered in Odessa. They attacked the Maximalists who were defeated after street fighting where there were many casualties on both sides. The sailors of the Black Sea fleet participated in the fighting.

Afterward the Black Sea sailors divided, the majority going over to the Ukrainians, who are preventing the Bolsheviks from sending troops from Odessa against Kaledines.

TERMS OF ARMISTICE.

Petrograd, Sunday, Dec. 16.—The terms of the Russo-German armistice, according to a statement issued here, obligates no transference of troops until January 14 (January 15 in Russia) not to increase the number of troops on the front or the islands in the Moon sound, or a regrouping of forces. The Germans are not to concentrate troops between the Black Sea and the Baltic sea of the 15th degree of longitude east of Greenwich. Intercourse between the troops may be allowed from sunrise to sunset. Groups are limited to 25 persons at a time which may exchange newspapers and unsealed mails and who may carry on trade an exchange articles of prime necessity.

A special agreement will be made by the naval general staff regarding the extension of armistice on the White sea and the Russian coast in the Arctic zone. It is agreed also that attacks on war and commercial vessels must stop in these regions in order to avoid attacks in other seas.

The armistice on the naval front embraces all of the Black Sea and the Baltic Sea east of the meridian 15 degrees east of Greenwich. The demarcation line fixed for the Black sea is from the light house of Slinka to the estuary of the Danube to Cape Gagos. In the Baltic the line runs from Rognel to the western coast of Worms island to the island of Bagsher to Khegarne.

Russian war vessels must not cross of this line and the other parties must not go north. The Russian government guarantees that the entente war vessels will obey the

Washington, Dec. 17.—Both wets and dries predicted victory when the house began to launch the six-hour debate which is to close at five o'clock this afternoon on the prohibition constitutional amendment. The drys admitted that the wets had been gaining strength for several days, but claimed twenty votes to spare over the necessary two-thirds.

The wets gave no figures and predicted the defeat of the resolution by a narrow but safe margin. Although the resolution already has passed the senate it will not be out of the woods with passage by the house, for it has been amended and the house committee has amended the resolution to provide that the states must act on its ratification within seven years, while the senate specified six. Congressmen emerged from under veritable waves of telegrams from "back home" when they came into the house chamber to vote.

The galleries were packed with enthusiasts from both sides of the question who came prepared for a field day.
As the debate ran on, Representative Barkley, of Kentucky, one of the prohibition leaders, claimed that a complete canvass of the state delegations indicated adoption of the resolution by a margin of fifteen votes over the necessary two-thirds.

Representative Gard, of Ohio, leading the opposition, declared the amendment proposed an invasion of the police power of the states and threatened the unanimity of the American people in winning the war.
The great body of Americans, he contended, want to leave the matter just as it is now.

Representative Cooper, of Ohio,
for the amendment, told the house:
"You look into a hot band or a coat to see if it bears a union label but you can look in vain into the whiskey bottle for a union label."

Representative Dyer, of Missouri, opposing it, declared the issue nothing more or less whether congress shall stand by "Dinwiddie and the anti-saloon league who thing more of this issue of the wet and dry than they do of the issue of whether America or Germany shall win this great war."

At 3 o'clock Representative Webb in charge of the prohibition fight, predicted adoption of the amendment by from 10 to 25 more than the necessary votes. Representative Dyer, Missouri, one of the leaders against it, claimed the prohibitionists would lose by eight or ten votes.

ARMING OF THE AMERICAN ARMY NOW IN FRANCE

Washington, Dec. 17.—Army ornance conditions at the beginning of the present fiscal year are treated only briefly by Major General Crozier, chief of ordnance in the annual report of his bureau made public today. Since the report was written, General Crozier has furnished the senate military committee a much more complete record of what has been done to arm the forces in France, or under training in the United States.

The report shows that up to June 30, the orders had been placed for one million Enfield rifles, details for the rearming of the British standard gun for American ammunition having been completed June 1.

On the machine gun situation General Crozier says that several types of weapons have been found efficient by the machine gun board but that procurement of an adequate supply was a question of securing deliveries.

It is shown in the report that all American field guns are to be similar in calibre to the French 75's, which have been so much discussed since the war began. The French semi-automatic breech mechanism also has been adopted in modified form so that American and French batteries in France can be served from the same ammunition factories.

Anti-aircraft guns of the "75" type also have been adopted. Both these and the machine guns are under manufacture in quantity, says the report. A considerable number of the anti-aircraft figured for mounting on motor trucks, also has been ordered.

The report shows that 38 inch howitzers, the guns principally used for barrage work in trench fighting, were designed and ready for manufacture on June 30.

The production of large calibre mobile artillery, that is, weapons of the type of the German 42 centimetre guns appears to be the chief source of delay in the army's equipment. General Crozier says a process of supplying our troops with these guns "necessarily will be slow advantage has been taken of the assistance secured from abroad."

HUNS SINK 11 IN ATTACK ON A LARGE CONVOY

London, Dec. 17.—One British and five neutral merchantmen, a British destroyer and four mine sweepers have been sunk in the North Sea by German naval forces.

The losses were the result of an attack on a convoy bound from Scotland to Norway. Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty announced today. The total tonnage of the lost merchantmen was 8,900.

OFFICERS' REPORT WHICH CONTAINS NO INFORMATION

Washington, Dec. 17.—The tremendous air program of the American army is dismissed with a brief paragraph on the Liberty motor in the annual report today of the chief signal officer of the army directly in charge of the work. The statement on the Liberty motor concludes:

"The Liberty engine, which for power, lightness and efficiency, compares favorably with the best European types, was under development in June."

Other statements in the report as to the expansion of the signal service and the aviation section are so remote from conditions today a few months that they furnish no significant information as to what the additional corps is doing.

PREDICT ALLIES WILL RECOGNIZE THE BOLSHEVIKI

So That Russia May Not Pass Under the Domination of the Germans

THE ITALIAN FRONT

British Troops Repulse Infantry and Bombing Parties in Cambria Sector

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

When the armistice agreement between the Russian government and the Central powers goes into effect on the eastern front today the emissaries of the several countries will begin negotiations toward peace between Russia and her former enemies. Meanwhile it is indicated in London that the allied powers may be preparing a deal more sympathetically with the Bolshevik government.

The armistice between Russia and the Central powers is to continue for 28 days and for an indefinite period afterward unless a seven days notice is given. Both sides agreed not to carry on military transfers on the eastern theatre except those begun when the treaty was signed.

London newspapers forecast that the allies will give recognition of the Bolshevik "in order to prevent Russia from passing under the political and economic heel of Germany." Great Britain is said to have decided to release Tchitcherine, a Russian political prisoner and the Bolsheviks are now permitting British subjects to leave Russia. To the American delegates at the Paris conference is said to belong the credit of temporarily allied attitude toward the Bolsheviki.

Labor strikes appear to be the great obstacle before the Bolsheviks at present, especially in the Petrograd district. The railway and fuel situations are serious. The counter revolt is still more or less of a menace to Bolshevik authority and the constituent assembly is another knotty problem. The confiscation of all property, lands and money of the Russian church has been decreed by the Bolsheviks who have abolished all privileges of the clergy.

Except on the short stretch between the Brest and Pskov rivers there has been no marked infantry activity on the front from the North Sea to the Adriatic.

Although their losses have been heavy the Austro-Germans continue strong attacks in an effort to break the Italian northern defense. In hard fighting just east of the Brenza the enemy has gained Col Caprille at the head of the San Lorenzo valley after two attacks had been repulsed.
The invaders have not yet reached the valley, further efforts here and elsewhere, having been checked by the Italians. British troops on the Cambria front have repulsed raids by infantry and bombing parties on the southern end of the new salient.

South of Lens the British improved their position. The artillery battle has been more marked south of Scarpe in the Arras area, and north of Langemarck in Flanders.

In Champagne, north of the Chem-in des Dames and south of St. Quentin, German efforts have been checked by the French while intermittent artillery activity has continued over a greater part of the front from St.
Quentin to Switzerland.

British are now making their influence felt on the Italian front.
Berlin reveals this today in announcing an attack by British forces south of Monte Fontana Secca, which it declares broke down before the Teutonic positions.

Counter-attacks have recently been growing more frequent on the part of the Italians and this British thrust gives indications that more aggressive tactics are being adopted by the allies in opposition to the Austro-German invaders.

The British drove in on the mountain line just to the west of the Piave, northwest of Monte Tomba. The German report today is the first specific mention of British activities on this front made in any of the official statements, although it has been known that considerable British forces were in place in this sector.

Another convoy proceeding from a British to a neutral port has been successfully attacked in the North Sea by German raiders. The convoy was bound from Scotland to Norway. A similar attack was made last October when nine neutral merchantmen and two British destroyers in the escort were sunk by German raiders.

NEW COUNCIL TAKES CHARGE AFTER THE MEETING TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the city council will be held this evening, it being the last one of the present body, the new officials taking charge of city affairs January 1. Several ordinances will be introduced this evening. It has been rumored that one will be introduced abolishing the office of clerk of the safety director, but it is the case it has not been left with Clerk Woodard as yet.

At the next meeting of the council when it will be re-organized, R. L. Williams, the well-known Hudson avenue druggist, will take the reins and it is predicted by his friends that he will so preside over the body that proceedings of council will be materially benefited. Mr. Williams who is one of the city's highly-honored and respected citizens, is splendidly equipped to preside over the deliberations of council and he will be of great value and assistance in city affairs after the first of the year.

There is a persistent rumor in certain circles that a sensation will take place in city officialdom sometime after the first of the year, but those acquainted with the facts state that they are not ready to divulge the same, but that it will be made public at the proper time.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 30c.

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Dec. 17.—Every Ohioan, before many weeks, will be able to go to his favorite "movie" house at home and get a "close up" of members of his family who are in training here with the 83rd division. The big film, depicting the daily life of selects at Camp Sherman, from reveille every morning until "taps" at night, is nearly done and it was today, that within the next three weeks the film will be shown at the same time in the ten largest cities of the state. After runs in these cities the film will be distributed among the smaller places in the state.

It is the aim of the committee in charge of the film to have every man, woman and child in the state see it. The Essanay Film company has had a corps of photographers and workers here and the film has been in the procession of making for the last six weeks. Major General E. F. Glenn, following a conference with Essanay officials last night, witnessed the first showing of the picture at division headquarters, leaving there at 1 o'clock this morning.

H. J. Koach, title writer for the Essanay company, and Charles G. Stait of Chicago, general manager of the company, conferred with General Glenn here today. The division commander is enthusiastic over the film, as a means of educating the people of Ohio in what the men are learning and what they are doing. An unusual number of "close ups" of the men is promised by Jack Needham, crack Essanay photographer who filmed most of the pictures. But little variation is planned for most of the selects during the coming week, unless the weatherman relents and permits the men to get out doors. According to present plans the 331st infantry will be to go on the rifle range about Thursday for the initial efforts at the 210 targets. The other units will follow in order as the weather conditions permit.

ing week, unless the weatherman relents and permits the men to get out doors. According to present plans the 331st infantry will be to go on the rifle range about Thursday for the initial efforts at the 210 targets. The other units will follow in order as the weather conditions permit.

Major Donald McRae, son of Brigadier General McRae, commander of the 158th brigade here, has been sent to Camp Sherman to lecture to the officers on trench warfare. He will give a series of five lectures during the coming week. Major McRae was commissioned in the Canadian army soon after the outbreak of the war, but did not get into action fast enough and he resigned to enter the British service, and again rose to the rank of major. Again he did not get into the trenches as he desired so he resigned to accept a second lieutenantcy with a unit on the French front. He participated in the heavy fighting at the Somme and other points along the west front. With the entry of the United States into the war he was commissioned a major in the American forces and is assigned to Camp Dix, Wristown, N. J.

Men in the 330th and 329th infantry regiment are scheduled for trench digging one day during the coming week. The inclement weather has slowed up the work but every effort will be made to push it.

A "get together" for the high officers of the 83rd division is planned for Friday evening, when Johnny Kilbane, camp boxing instructor, will have charge of a program of boxing and other entertainments.

The affair is planned so that the majors and other high officers may get better acquainted. It was said at division headquarters today that many of the high officers have had no opportunity to meet and know each other.

As the result of an investigation of the heating facilities at the base hospital, it is likely that minor changes will be made. Major Ward Dabney, former constructing quartermaster at Camp Sherman who is on his way to Washington, said today. The war department sent Captain Tripp and a representative of the company manufacturing the steam traps to Camp Sherman to investigate them. After complaint had been made, Major Dabney said, Captain Tripp spent in the coldest room at the base hospital for a week and reported that he could find no ground for complaint regarding the heating but made some minor recommendations. He recommended the qualities of the camp's water.

LOCAL FINANCE COMMITTEE OF WAR SAVINGS FUND

Of the United States government's two million dollar issue of Thrift stamps and war savings certificates, Ohio is asked to take $106,000,000. Licking county's share is $1,100,000. This means that every man, woman and child must be taught the valuable lesson of Thrift and must be urged to join Thrift clubs. A comprehensive advertising campaign is to be made, motion picture houses are to be enlisted in the service and speakers are to present the government's savings plan to groups of people in every section of Licking county. The government relies upon the patriots of each community to finance their own campaign. A fund is to be created by authority and direction of the Ohio war savings committee and the chairman of the Licking county committee, appointed by the secretary of the treasury at Washington.

County Chairman C. H. Spencer this afternoon announced the appointment of a finance committee, consisting of Col. W. C. Wells, chairman; Charles C. McCruder, secretary, and Messrs. Warren T. Suter, Jos. N. Pugh, W. C. Kuster, G. G. Barber, A. Schiff, L. F. Carl, T. M. Edmiston, Frank S. Neigbor and S. E. Alban. This committee will raise the fund needed to carry on the important work of the organization through the year 1918. The pledged cards provide for one-half to be paid on or before February 1, and one-half on or before April 1, 1918. Remittances may be sent to Chas. C. McCruder, secretary, Home Building Association, Newark, O. A list of contributions to the war savings fund will be published.

Some men carry the delight of anticipation so far that they are able to borrow money on their opportunities.

INSTRUCTED IN WORK REGARDING QUESTIONNAIRES

A meeting of the Licking County Bar association was held on Monday morning. J. R. Cooper was chosen chairman of the meeting. The object of the meeting was to consider the instructions received this morning from the provost marshal general as to filling out the questionnaires submitted by the draft board, and which questionnaires the attorneys are to assist in filling out. A questionnaire was filled out and the instructions of the war board considered, including the method of arriving at the proper classification of registrants. A number of the questionnaires are being sent out each day, and include 16 printed pages of questions.

At the conclusion of the meeting a vote of thanks was extended to the chairman, J. R. Cooper, for the impartial and dignified manner in which he performed his duties.

MEN ARE NAMED TO ASSIST COUNTY DRAFT BOARD

In order to assist the Local Draft Board for Licking County, whose office is at Granville, John M. Swartz, J. Howard Jones and A. S. Mitchell have been appointed by the president as the legal advisory board for the County Draft Board, and the following lawyers:

Chas. L. Flory, B. F. McDonald, Max B. Norpell, Ray Marun, J. W. Horner, B. G. Smythe, H. C. Ashcraft, Ernest Cornell, Robert W. Howard, Chas. N. Moore, Ralph B. Norpell, W. F. Lavin, J. R. Davies, all of Newark; Frank C. Hite, Utica; and Eugene Moore of Pataskala, and the following laymen: C. L. McCracken, Johnstone; Howard M. Whitehead, Alexandria; Henry C. Kellar, R. D. No. 1; Hanover; Bryant L. Hawke, Hebron; Stanton E. Hoover, Croton; Chas. H. Emswiler, Kirtsville; C. M. Robinson, Gratiot, have been appointed, as associate members of said legal advisory board, whose duties are to advise and assist the County Registrars, without charge in answering the "Questionnaire" which the war department now requires to be answered.

Any of the county registrars may apply to any of the above named persons, or before the "Local Draft Board" at Granville, where he will be assisted in the preparation of his answers, and advised as to the class in which his proofs entitled him to be placed. The arrangement is that these persons will be found at their local offices, prepared to render these services to registrants at all office hours, so that they may not be required to appear before the local draft board unless especially notified to that effect. When the "Questionnaire" has been executed satisfactorily to any of these officers, it may be sent by mail to the draft board at Granville.

Registrants will be required to produce to these officers all the proofs documentary or otherwise, prescribed by the war department, so that they may intelligently advise in the matter.

WARMER WEATHER IS PROMISED FOR OHIO

Washington, Dec. 17.—A marked rise in temperature was forecast today by the weather bureau for the Ohio valley, the lower lake region and Atlantic coast districts by Tuesday.

Moderate temperatures now prevailing in the upper lake region and the upper Mississippi valley likely will continue until about Wednesday and be followed by several days of somewhat colder weather.

The warmer weather in the east and south probably will be attended by snow in northern snow or rain in the central and rain in the southern districts.

rules of this provision and that Russian warships will not be allowed to sail among the Aaland islands.

The armistice was agreed upon by representatives of the high commands of Russia, Bulgaria, Germany, Austria-Hungary and Turkey for the purpose of achieving a lasting and honorable peace between the parties concerned, according to the text of the armistice. The contracting parties have the right to break the armistice by giving seven days' notice. The statement says.

After fixing the lines of demarcation in the Black and Baltic seas and limiting the movement of war ships, the agreement stipulates that commercial navigation of these seas will be permitted under rules to be formulated by a commission.

Immediately after the signing of the armistice peace negotiations are to be begun. It is provided that measures shall be taken for the exchange of civil prisoners, invalids, women and children under 14 years and for the amelioration of the condition of war prisoners. The treaty concludes with these words:

"With the purpose of facilitating the conduct of peace negotiations and the speedy healing of the wounds caused by the war, the contracting parties take measures for re-establishing cultural and economic relations among the signatories. Within such limits as the armistice permits, postal, commercial relations, the mailing of books and papers, will be permitted, the details to be worked out by a mixed commission, representing all the interested parties at Petrograd."

WILL KEEP CHECK ON RETAILERS OF FOODSTUFFS

Columbus, O., Dec. 17.—The food administration for Ohio today established a system of collection of retail prices from among consumers where it will be able to keep a check on all retailers of foodstuffs and determine whether they are living up to the program of the food administration and not charging excessive or exorbitant prices for the necessities of life.

Because instances of excessive prices were recently discovered in certain mining communities, it was decided to start the price collection system among the miners of the state and a letter has gone out to the 500 local unions of the United Mine Workers organization in Ohio signed by G. W. Savage, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Miners and representative on the staff of Food Administrator Croxson. These price reports will be checked as they are received at the office of the food administration in Columbus and instances of excessive prices will be reported to the local food administration committees for investigation.

SUFFERS BAD BURNS IN REPLENISHING A HEATING STOVE FIRE

Life has proven a series of anti-climaxes for Mrs. Thomas Garrison, 35, who was probably fatally burned Monday morning, when her apron caught fire as she was putting coal in a stove at her home in the rear of 179 South Fourth street.

Mrs. Garrison was deserted by her husband two years ago, when he ran away taking with him their two-year-old baby, and she has never been able to find a trace of him. She lived with her two children by a former marriage, Helen and Carl Kimmel, aged 10 and 8. They had been quarantined for the measles and were at home from school today.

In telling of the accident Helen said that they were in the kitchen and their mother in the living room, when she noticed a big blaze, and her mother cried to her. She ran in and found her dress afire in the front. Mrs. Emmet Hitchcock of Pataskala street who had been at the home of Mrs. Charles Rose, who lives next door, was passing the Garrison home, when Mrs. Garrison ran out of the house, she tried to put out the flames, and falling called for Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Loughman who lived across the street. Mrs. Garrison fell in the snow and with rugs and blankets the neighbors put out the fire. Mrs. Hitchcock strived valiantly with Mrs. Garrison who, crazed by the fire, fought her off. After Mrs. Hitchcock had carried her into the home the Bradley ambulance was called and she was removed to the Newark Sanitarium where Dr. D. M. Smith attended her. The children were taken to the home of Mrs. Rose.

The clothing was burned from the body and from the knees to the head the body was seared. The face head and hands are terribly burned but little hope is entertained for her recovery. Her constitution will probably refuse to stand the shock of the accident, as she has been weakened by the worry occasioned by the desertion of her husband with her small baby.

Police court this morning was varied as to drunks, charges of disorderly conduct, and fighting. Geo. Ledbetter of Mansfield was fined 75 cents and costs for disorderly conduct, as was John Brecht, Floyd Robb, 16, of Frazzsburg, was turned over to the juvenile court. He was arrested Saturday when he endeavored to pass a forged check at the Boston store.

Remember the Birds

Sweep the snow from the porch and scatter the crumbs left from the table, then watch the birds come and get them. Think of how much good the little birds do for you during the summer months by keeping all the worms away from your garden and flowers. The birds will certainly appreciate any foodstuff they might receive from you.

Water is also a necessity for birds in the winter when the water is frozen you may help the birds by putting a pan of warm water out where the birds can easily find it. By thinking of these things after meals you will be able to have better gardens next year, because the birds will pay you for your work in many ways.

MEANS JURORS GIVE VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL

Concord, N. C., Dec. 17.—Gaston B. Means was acquitted here today of a charge of slaying Mrs. Maude A. King, the wealthy New York and Chicago widow. The jury received the case last night but after two hours' deliberation announced a verdict would not be returned until today.

Mrs. King was killed at Black-welder Spring, a lonely spot in the country near here, August 29, last, when with Means and a party of his friends, she had stopped on an automobile drive to practice pistol shooting. Means and the woman were alone at the time, Capt. W. S. Bingham and Afton Means, a brother of Gaston Means, having walked down the road to shoot at rabbits.

A coroner's inquest accepted the statement of Gaston Means that Mrs. King shot herself accidentally. It was not until the woman's body was taken to Chicago for burial that charges of foul play were made.

Mrs. King had inherited approximately $1,000,000 from her second husband, the late James C. King of Chicago, and during the trial New York and Chicago witnesses declared nearly all of this sum had "vanished" during the time Means was connected with the woman's affairs. It also was asserted Means was preparing to offer for probate an alleged second will of James C. King which would give an additional $2,000,000 to Mrs. King. The defense offered evidence to show that Mrs. King approved Means' speculations with her money.

252 LOADED COAL CARS IN CITY, NO RELIEF OFFERED

"Coal! Coal everywhere, and not a den to burn!" (With apologies). But this is the lament of Mayor H. C. Bigbee who has been besieged for the past week by requests, and even demands, for coal. The telephone ring incessantly and the mayor states that there are a great many cases of dire distress in the city for lack of fuel.

He had the police department make an investigation Saturday and take a survey of the coal situation. They reported back that they had found 252 carloads of coal within the city limits. Two hundred and forty-six of these were in the B. & O. yards, three on the Pennsylvania yards, and three on the tracks in the southern part of the city. These cars have been on the tracks for many days, they are covered with snow, and seemingly there is no effort to move them. The mayor stated he thought they were supposedly in transit for the lake region.

He wired Governor Cox, stating the situation and asking for relief, but has received no reply to his message.

WHY BUY THRIFT STAMPS.

There is no vast difference between subscribing to the Red Cross and buying Liberty bonds though both are highly important in the great task of winning the war. One is an outright gift, the other the very best sort of an investment. There is just the same difference between giving to the Y. M. C. A. war fund and buying Thrift stamps and war savings certificates. A subscription to the Y. M. C. A. is a donation which pays a dividend in the consciousness of doing the right thing, but an investment in Thrift stamps pays dividends in hard cash and at the same time it helps to fill Uncle Sam's war chest. One great advantage to the American people that will come from this war will be the establishment of the principle of Thrift. It is a lesson that millions of Americans need to learn. Begin today by buying Thrift stamps at 25 cents each. Almost any child can buy at least one and after 16 are purchased they may be exchanged by the payment of 12 cents in cash before February 1 for a $5 war savings certificate, good as gold. This certificate is a mortgage upon the United States. It pays 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly, and if at any time one needs the money before the certificate matures in 1929, Uncle Sam will take it up paying back all the buyer paid for it, plus interest to the time it is surrendered. Could any arrangement be more generous or more advantageous to the public?

Uncle Sam must sell two billion dollars worth of these Thrift stamps and war savings certificates in 1918 and of this great sum $100,000,000 will be taken by the people of Ohio. The apportionment for Licking county is $20 for every resident of the county. Begin today to save and to buy Thrift stamps. The government calls upon every man, woman and child to help and every patriot will respond. If there are any who want to see the Kaiser win the war they will not be expected to join in this great Thrift movement.

Help make a new definition for patriotism. Service to the country is a good one. Help make it good through Thrift stamps. The nation will help you while you help it. Could anything be fairer?

Join Uncle Sam's honor class of civilians. They are those who observe the food regulations and buy Liberty bonds and Thrift stamps if means are not great enough for bonds.

TRAINING AVIATORS.

French officers who have inspected the beginnings of our aviation work express themselves as much pleased with our thorough system of inspection and repairs. It has been the experience of the French aviation schools that several beginners are killed each week in practice flying. Our beginners now are having very few accidents.

The secret of safety is a very high-grade of mechanical work. All depends on the engine. As long as that works, the aviator with any decent control is safe. When the engine gives way, he is gone. Controlling a plane is, of course, more difficult than running an automobile, as the aviator must learn to deal with air-currents.

But a pupil after 15 hours with an instructor is commonly allowed to go up alone. After five hours solo flights, he then may get his certificate admitting him to the aerial reserve. This is not much longer than it takes many people to learn to run an automobile.

The main thing is to make an aviator a good mechanic. He must be taught to take down and reassemble his engine. He should not have to spend his own time and energy doing repair-work. But he will have to do some hasty emergency work on forced landings away from his hangars. Also, he needs to know whether the repair men are doing the job right or not. He must be able to assure himself from personal inspection that the machine is right before he attempts a flight.

Also, the report comes from France that too little care is taken over there in teaching men to land skillfully. A man may get a fatal fall from landings in a tree 25 feet high, as well as from a drop of 10,000 feet. If he learns how to judge landing places from above, and how to put his machine right where he wants it, he will avoid many perils.

PROMOTING RURAL PROSPERITY.

It is interesting to see how many American towns are taking up the idea of promoting the prosperity of the rural communities lying tributary to such towns. They are beginning to realize that to have a prosperous center, you must have a prosperous outlying farm community coming into it for business.

Formerly the attitude of town-life was to make fun of the farmers who used to drive in for their supplies. They were ridiculed as Reubens, jeered at in public entertainments, and made to feel their rustic character.

Now town people are recognizing that a great many of the brightest people live in the country and the suburbs, and that business relations with them are necessary to any town and city prosperity. Banks and boards of trade are taking up the idea of promoting prosperity and rural advance in the surrounding country.

A good example is the kind of activity maintained by a Business Men's Association at Roundup, Mont. This organization runs a wide variety of little enterprises for the promotion of rural business. They secure a good class of cattle for the farmers. They hold auction sales of cattle and horses. An employment bureau is conducted and help found for farmers and jobs for workers, all services without charge. They run a bulletin of things for sale or exchange. Agricultural meetings are held in county schoolhouses, etc.

Farmers are such busy people that they are apt to have no time for promotion work of this character.

There is need for such an organization in every agricultural district, and in the section about Newark to do for the farming business what a chamber of commerce does for merchants and manufacturers. If the business men of a town can take up this work on behalf of the outlying farm community, they will go far to make their town the buying center for the surrounding country, and they will advance all interests centering in their community.

THE OLD CAR.

The present part in the motor industry is that many producers will stop turning out pleasure cars during the war. Airplane and other war work will absorb their energies. A reduced output of pleasure cars seems altogether probable, with lower changes in models. New cars may become hard to get and are likely to increase in price. Under these conditions a lot of people that have bought new automobiles every year or two will think twice about a new one.

Public sentiment never condemned the man of wealth who wished to use his money in this way. At least he makes work for other people, and a lot of purchasers are enabled to buy their new cars for but a low price.

Before automobile days, people of wealth used to have their costly horse-drawn carriages. Once this expensive equipment was provided, it was good for a period of years.

But the coming of the automobile motor with its frequent changes and constant addition of new features, is a constant temptation to expense. The rapidly-developing engine has been the most fascinating kind of a toy the genius of man ever invented. To a man interested in mechanical perfection it was like a big pink-faced Paris doll to a 10-year-old girl.

The new car might have every conceivable device known at that time, yet if in a year the next model had a little better purr or a quicker start, the old one was obsolete and had to go at a sacrifice.

This may be very well for a time of peace, but in a war period money lavished in such ways is needed for Liberty bonds. Our people of wealth will be just as well served if they stick to the fine old car for a term of years, as their fathers did to a favorite old horse. Automobile making has reached such a degree of perfection that a high-grade car grows old very gracefully.

In buying Christmas gifts for the children this week don't forget to include a Thrift stamp card with as many stamps attached thereto as you can afford.

We are altogether now in this struggle. If we win, you win. If we lose, you lose. Will you help win? Thrift stamps offer one way.

While you are making Christmas presents, make one to Newark by spending your holiday money at home.

About now a lot of people will turn up at Washington to show how the war can be won by buying their goods.

(Christian Science Monitor.)
There are veterans of the Chicago newspaper press who recall Georges Clemenceau, the noted Parisian journalist and present premier of France, as one of their associates, who remember him as an industrious and reliable young reporter, and who have always esteemed him because of the honorable part he played with reference to an early romance. At one time or another many young men, besides Mr. Clemenceau, who were afterwards to attain world fame, were members of the Chicago press forces, as for example, Henry M. Stanley and Lafcadio Hearn. Mr. Clemenceau, before going to Chicago, had taught in a Connecticut boarding school, and later served as a bank messenger in an eastern city. Returning to his native country, he carried with him quite a large number of Yankee notions that have served him well in his fight for recognition, place and power.

(Physical Culture Magazine.)
Overeating is a dear pleasure. Its price is fearful to contemplate. It steals your energy, your enthusiasm. It makes life a dull, monotonous, joyless existence. So much for the cost of irrational eating while you live. But it steals years of your life. Some sacrifice to unscientific eating 10 years of life, others 20, 30, 40 and in some extreme cases more than double this number of years. A man of 20 may lose his life through overeating, while a scientific selection of foods, in quantity and quality, might have prolonged his years to 120.

Man is indeed what food makes of him. The world's greatest food scientist was born in the fifteenth century. He lived far into the sixteenth century. He was 193 years of age when he died.

He practiced what he preached, and was truly a marvelous example of the value of his theories. In his fortieth year he had been given up to die by his physicians. He had led a life of dissipation, his vitality was depleted, his body a wreck.

Fortunately, his mentality was still keen. The verdict of his physicians came to him as a shock. He awakened to the dangers before him and began to study life's deepest and most mysterious problem—that of living scientifically. Luigi Cornaro was the name of this man, a native of Italy. He controlled his fate. He lengthened his life by more than 60 years. If proper credit were given to him he would be considered one of the world's greatest men. There is no problem in all human life that is more welched with importance than that of adding to the health and life of the body.

(Atlantic Constitution.)
"Bradstreet's" says that eighty-four per cent of all failures are among non-advertisers. Which, considering the source of the declaration, is pretty conclusive proof that advertising pays. When Bradstreet's says that only 16 per cent of business failures are among advertisers, the statement has a real significance. No business firm ever became truly great except by the aid of advertising.

Like competition, advertising is the life of trade. Without it, in modern days and under modern business conditions, no commercial or other business concern can achieve the success that it can with it. That is axiomatic, as every successful business man will attest. Outside, possible of personality and integrity, advertising is the mightiest force, positive and potent, in present-day commerce and business.

WHY MEN FIGHT.

(New York Tribune.)

No doubt it will vex our patriotic aesthetes—those warriors who fight for their country with pleas explaining why we must love the Germans and speak gently to them when they commit atrocities—to read of the fifteen husky boys of Newark, O., who enlisted in the navy "to avenge the death of their friend and fellow-townsmen, Archie B. Leedy, who was lost with the Jacob Jones." But such is the way of war of fighting, of life. It will take more than a few eloquent pacifists to change so much of human nature.

"Avenge" is the handiest tag available to describe the motives of these Ohio boys. Let it stand. But let us realize just how much human kindness and generosity and loyalty are bound up in it. The finest stuff of friendship, of pride in all that is heroic in our country, of personal bravery and sacrifice is in it. The sturdy human will to hit back when attacked is there. Of such is the hope of our country. All honor to this Ohio city and its men who are eager to follow where their friend led.

(Atlantic Monthly.)

The Germans have forcibly enlisted the labor of about 2,000,000 prisoners of war. Moreover, the official French report of April 12, 1917, concerning acts committed by the Germans in violation of international law, asserts that in the occupied territories deportation of workers has been a general measure. It has "applied to the entire able-bodied population of both sexes, from the ages of 16 to 60, excepting women with young children."

Now the Germans requisition labor from among 7,500,000 Belgians, 3,000,000 French, 4,500,000 Serbians, 5,000,000 Rumanians, 22,000,000 Poles, Ruthenians and Lithuanians—a total of 42,000,000 slaves.

Let us see what sort of remuneration is made. Take the case of a young girl at Lille, 20 years old, who was forced to work for six months, harvesting and threshing wheat, and digging potatoes from 6 in the morning to twilight, receiving all the while the vilest food. For her six months of work she was given nine francs, 45 centimes ($1.89).

The allies, on the contrary, pay high wages to their workers, and when they run short, must needs pour out good gold in bringing reinforcements from Asia, Africa and America. This means that a considerable part of the wages paid these foreign workmen will leave France or England for all time.

(Boston Herald.)

More than 600 colored men have just been given commissions in the national army—105 of them as captains and 420 as first or second lieutenants. That total is about half the enrollment at the training camp at Des Moines, Ia. For the first time in our history, though scores of thousands of colored men have fought under our flag, colored officers will lead colored troops. A Washington dispatch says that when the colored troops now in training at various cantonments are mobilized as a division and sent to France, they will constitute the largest unit of colored troops ever under our flag.

That is probably true, but a division, with about 20,000 men under the present arrangement, has only an eighth as many men as there were negro soldiers under our flag in the Civil war. No fewer than 141 regiments—of which our 54th Massachusetts was the first to be organized in the north—with a total enrollment of 178,975 negro soldiers, saw real service in that war—not to mention the many thousands who saw more or less voluntary service in the confederate army.

For many years there have been four negro regiments in the regular army. Three negroes have graduated from West Point and nine others have attended that institution. At the present time there are twelve colored officers in the regular army, of whom eight, however, are chaplains, active or retired. Fort Wagner, San Juan Hill and Carrizal have set the standard for the new negro division—or divisions—and the 625 officers commissioned at Des Moines cannot be said to be leading a new experiment. They are leaders, however, are something of an experiment, but it is altogether likely that many commissions higher than that of captain await them.

VICTORY IS CERTAIN.

At the moment the war is growing in intensity rather than diminishing. Germany's activities are certainly increasing, presumably with a view of making a supreme effort. Britain's drive against Cambrai has been checked. Italy is actively resisting a tremendous attack. Russia is in the throes of civil strife. Spain and Portugal are both endangered by the fires raging about them, while all the neutral countries are more or less in danger of being drawn into the conflagration. In the United States the war clouds are growing thicker and thicker. The storm is here, though not yet raging in full force. As our young men depart in increasing numbers for "over there," we grow more and more serious, and our appreciation of the great cause, and their supreme sacrifice, becomes deeper and stronger. When the casualty lists come back we will feel more keenly the price required to make this a better and a freer world, if not for ourselves, for those who come after us. No wonder we become solemn, serious and disappointed. But there should be no yielding to this discouragement, and no gloom. Victory is certain, provided we "carry on" our part with unflinching hope and courage.—Henry Crows, New York Banker.

Fleets of the Ohio.

The news that 56,000 tons of coal, a fleet of 110 towboats carrying 140 barges, has been started down the Ohio upon an artificial levee 70 miles long, created by the manipulation of dams in the affluents of the Ohio, is good news. If the war, and its exceptional transportation problems, serve to awaken America to the value of its waterways, and to its need of its waterways, the shipping outlook for the next century will be far better than it otherwise would be.—Louisville Courier Journal.

German in the Public Schools.

Surely at this time, when we are restricting true educational effort and cutting down our school year to admit the study of German, there should be a wiser control of our school enterprises. The people should not vote another dollar to education until the study of German is cut out of the common schools. Even if the study of German could be made possible for commercial use, there will be little or no demand for it for years to come, either in the business, scientific or literary field. This is going to be America with a big A.—Ohio State Journal.

Pointed Observations

The war savings scheme (Thrift Stamps and War Certificates) ought to mark and make a turning point in the financial history of our country.—Collier's Weekly.

Again, in another month—November—the British completed enough new tonnage to offset the U-boat destruction. It's a big war item.—Columbus Citizen.

The fine spirit of the American seamen still lives. The dying effort of a sailor on the destroyer Jones was to rescue his unconscious commander from the water.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

Another prominent pro-German who has interposed his tongue is Mayor Thompson of Chicago; he's keeping where Moses was when the light went out.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Return of long skirts in a time of cloth shortage would not show particular public spirit on the part of makers of fashion.—Chicago News.

One good feature of the situation is that there are a surprising number of young girls convinced that they are peculiarly fitted to become Red Cross nurses who only a few short months ago felt that their abilities lay in the direction of becoming movie vampires.—Grand Rapids Press.

No jury quite goes to the extreme and thanks a pretty woman for killing her husband.—Toledo Blade.

(Philadelphia Record.)

It's all right to have a mind of your own, but back talk never gets a fellow to the front.

The people who fish for compliments should be sure their lines are cast in pleasant places.

"Courtship is a symphony," says the cynical Bachelor, "but marriage isn't always an encore."

The soldier should be superior to physical discomforts. Even the officer with corns may stand on his dignity.

You never can tell about a man's age. The fellow who boasts that he understands women must be younger than he looks.

The Advocate's MELTING POT

Sincerity is like traveling in a plain beaten road, which commonly brings a man sooner to his journey's end than by-ways, in which men often lose themselves.—Tillotson.

"What is that on your forehead, pray?"
Asked little Tommy Winkle:
"Oh, that," responded Miss Inassee, "is just the latest wrinkle."

Aunt Caline says:—Marcus Black surprised his family by coming home this week, which he is one of these here traveling men.

To My Soldier Boy.
Oh boy be true where you go, because you know I love you so. And in my heart there is a song, for faith is deep and hope is strong. In God's good time, from o'er the sea you will come day come back to me.

Oh boy of mine, keep free from sin for only so, you'll fight to win. Be true to self and Uncle Sam and always know how proud I am. Of you dear boy, where ever you are, in near by camp, or lands afar.

Oh soldier boy!—be true, true blue To all who may be over you. Trust God in all, the dark the night, for soon must come the clearing light. Let nothing count how, or annoy, and always know you are my boy.

Oh boy of mine—I love you so. And every day must come and go. But God will watch you "over there" And help and save you, in my prayer. No matter how far you may roam, Some day I know you're coming home to mother.

O. U. C. From End to "EVER." Willie dear, I'm glad you're tickled. With my remedy cheap and sure, Liz I know will be less fickle. In the future, rest assured.

Good old Liz—so like Miss Rankin First to represent the clan, And make a lot of to-shins. Foremost stands in our fair land.

Should artful "DODGERS" try to sever, Ties that should forever bind You and Liz in bonds devoted. Spurn them, with your spurn combined.

Now, I pause, my heart beats rhyming. With the lines I try to write. For it seems so long this waiting—summer days and your "invite."

Fear you not—Oh Willie Gett! That long chances you do take? Scribbles and voices in the "phone dear SOMETIMES, are dangerous things to "date."

Still, not I would miss a blessing Such as you confer on me. However, we the crowd might lessen And just take Liz for company.

Now I must my patience extinguish And my soul in patience wrap. While winter days drag slow in anguish Spring—and then to summer pass.

Zowie! Simply no way of stopping except the one way, which is to choke it off. It do beat the Dutch how a scribe scribbles, but anything that beats the Dutch goes with me these days.

Perhaps if I could send a few of my efforts at "courtin' the muse" to the German trenches, they would all turn up their toes and die (I mean the germs of my efforts.)

Now since the Kaiser (too bad to have to use a capital K) has been guilty of putting the germ in German wouldn't it just serve him right if those poor deluded, browbeaten subjects of his should some day wake up and get rid of that "germ" and make good on the man.

Then life would be life once more for us all.

What has all this got to do with Willie Gett? Is what, must confess even I can't see though I am.—O. U. C.

Ewing-Vanner.
On Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Della Florence Vanner of this city and Mr. Allen F. Ewing of Steubenville was solemnized at the parsonage of the East Main Street U. B. Church, Rev. A. B. Cox officiating. They were attended by Miss Loretta Sturman and Mr. George Scott and will make their home in Steubenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Frey, delightfully celebrated their second wedding anniversary on Saturday evening at their home, 146 South Cedar street. Fifty-nine guests spent the evening at their home and a charming feature of the event was the repetition of the marriage ceremony with Mr. and Mrs. Frey again as bride and bridegroom. They received many pretty tokens from their friends. The home was arranged with a color scheme of pink and white, pink carnations and narcissus being used. The only out of town guests was Olga Frey of Toboso.

The members of the Review club entertained with a musicale on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Hall in North Fifth street, and following program and interesting address on "The Army," was given by Prof. H. F. Moninger of the Newark High school faculty.

The program follows:
(A) Elegie, Massenet, (b) Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms, Moore—Miss Sarah Stasel, cello.

(c) Bowl of Roses, Clark; (d) Keep the Home Fires Burning, Ford-Novello—Mrs. Harold Rickert.

(e) The Oriental, Cui; Angel's Serenade, Braga—Miss Sarah Stasel.

(f) Love, Here is My Heart—Mrs. Harold Rickert, accompanists piano, Esther Rickert and cello, Sarah Stasel.

(g) Charity-Red Cross song, McDermott—Mrs. Rickert.

Mrs. Lorin K. Galloway delightfully entertained the members of the Harmonious Embroidery club at her home in Union street. After the work of the club, a dinner was served the members and one guest, Mrs. Andrews.

(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, Dec. 17.—One's choicest superlatives should be employed in describing the performance of "The Messiah," Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church, given by the Denison Orchestra and Engwerson chorus, conducted by Karl Eschman, director of Denison Conservatory, before one of the largest audiences yet assembled here for this beautiful Christmas observance. In asserting that as a whole, yesterday's presentation was the finest ever given here, one does not forget such eminent artists as the MacDonaldis, soprano and contralto, Elsie Hirschberg Dermott, Elizabeth Thompson Wilson, Marion Rose Johnson and others, both men and women, who from time to time have delighted and inspired Granville audiences with their artistry. The four soloists chosen for this occasion maintained the high standard set by the society during the past decade, and their interpretations of the familiar and beloved arias were gratefully received by the audience which at times felt hampered by the restrictions tacitly forbidding any applause.

Miss Roswitha Cranston Smith, the new voice assistant in the Conservatory, is possessed of a charming presence, a voice of great purity and flexibility, which adapted itself to the high pitch of the organ with no apparent effort. Her singing was marked by sincerity and the climax of her performance was beautifully reached in her concluding solo, "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth."

Miss Corinne Borchers of Columbus, in her second appearance in this place, revealed her thorough musicianship in her interpretation of the contralto arias, "He Shall Feed His Flock," and "He Was Despised."

Ralph Warren Soule, head of the voice department in the Conservatory, belongs in the artist class, and never fails to thrill his hearers by the absolute control he exercises. The exacting tenor arias were never better sung in this place. Purity and flexibility of tone, dramatic quality, and marvellous control marked his performance.

Belford Cheadle of Newark, made his first bow to the public in Oratorio, and distinguished himself as a young singer of great promise. The bass aria "The People that Walked in Darkness" was rendered with admirable poise, with sincerity of feeling and with a full sonorous tone most pleasing.

The orchestra never has been heard to greater advantage and with Miss Ferrar at the organ the accompaniments to her solos and choruses were beyond criticism. One hundred voices, among which there was no "dead wood," produced a tremendous effect and fairly electrified the great audience by the spontaneity, the precision and the volume with

The Festival Association realizing that the present conditions throughout the country demand the best in the way of music, or none at all, have been enabled by the financial backing of its trustees to offer a course of five numbers which for excellence is equal to any course offered in Columbus, and far exceeding any yet offered in Granville. These trustees are: President C. W. Chamberlain, J. C. Campbell, A. H. Healey, James A. Huston, J. S. Jones, C. B. White.

Many out of town people were seen in the audience and expressions of pleasure in the performance were heard on every side.

The conductor, Karl Eschman is already at work on the "Tannhauser" choruses for the Spring festival, which promises to out-do any performance yet given in Granville.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, with their little son, of Nobel, Ontario, arrived in Granville Saturday evening for a holiday visit with their mother, Mrs. Marie Sinsbaugh.

Interest in the Red Cross drive, and in the announcement that A. C. Williams, who has fought in the trenches, was to speak at the Union service last evening, filled the Methodist church to capacity. Special music by the choir included solos by Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Roe Morrow, and a violin solo by Prof. Biefield. The pastors of the churches, County Superintendent Wilson of Newark, Granville Superintendent Cockayne, and Mr. A. C. Williams occupied the platform. The Red Cross drive for memberships was heartily endorsed by the church.

Rev. F. D. Barnes and Superintendent Wilson, and the plans as outlined by the Granville schools was presented by Supt. Cockayne who asked that the children be received kindly and that the response be as generous as possible. Three of the school children, one of them of high school age, will visit each home, receive the contributions and deliver a membership card for each dollar.

Red Cross service flags will be distributed, on which will appear a "small cross for each individual member and a large central one if every member of the family is enlisted. These flags will be displayed in the front window of every home and on Christmas eve at 7:30 all over the United States candles will be lighted behind them.

Mr. Williams remarks were intensely interesting as he is the first one who has returned from that mysterious and terrible region—the front line trenches. Being the first time that he ever spoke in a church, Mr. Williams felt that he ought not to dwell too much on the horrors he has experienced, although he is glad to answer all questions of private individuals. The empty sleeve spoke eloquently of the sacrifice he has made, the other disabilities not being apparent as for instance the loss of an eye, of the hearing in one ear, and several of his ribs. Physically he is a broken man, mentally, he is as active and alive as ever, and ready to do his bit.

The Culp String Quartet, the first number on the Festival Music course, will appear tonight in the Baptist church at 8:15, following the annual Phi Beta Kappa address in Recital Hall.

Care of the Throat.
Every time you give any attention to your face remember that your throat needs the same care, and it can easily be given at the same time. Before going to bed at night wash both face and hands in tepid soapy water. Rub the neck particularly well with a complexion brush. Then soften with cold cream to remove dirt which the water did not touch.

Massage the throat allowing the fingers to rest on the ears, the hands extending behind the neck, then massage with the thumbs, pushing the flesh back under the curves of the chin. This will help to prevent the appearance of folds and creases, cause a yellow throat, or one covered with yellow spots may be easily made white by the following process: First, thoroughly clean the throat with soap and water. In doing this, do not neglect to scrub beneath the chin and over the shoulders on the back. Then apply this bleach: Strained honey once, lemon juice one teaspoon, oil of bitter almonds six drops, whites of two eggs and enough fruit extract to make a paste. After mixing these ingredients spread the paste rather thickly on a piece of muslin and tie it about the throat. In the morning remove the paste and wash the neck thoroughly, rinsing first in warm water, then in cold. Rub the juice of two lemons on the neck and the skin will be a skin bleach.

Try this treatment once a week for three weeks in succession and you will find that your neck will become soft and white. It is a good idea to always keep a cut lemon or lime dressing table with it. It will help to remove the marks on the neck and is useful as a skin bleach.

Our Boys and Girls

Try to make your child content and to gradually to dress himself as well as to put his clothes away in an orderly fashion. Remember that habits begun in childhood are apt to last a lifetime. Be sure, too, that the thought that is last in the child's mind as he drops off to sleep, will be food as it will be the first that comes to him in the morning.

Give the children their evening meals early, say at 5 or 5:30, before the parents' dinner. It gives the mother who has to be cook, nursemaid, seamstress and everything, in fact, will do well to adopt this method. It gives the parents their own dinner hour in comfort without distressing scenes that occur when tired, peevish children are present. It gives the little folks, bathed and tucked into bed before their tired father returns from business and the result will be a quiet, restful evening.

Milk, toast, well cooked cereal, warm mutton broth, stewed fruit, and any drink that acts as a laxative, makes a sensible, easily digested diet for children.

Fishes' Sixth Sense.

How salt-water fish that at certain periods in their lives migrate to fresh water always find their way into the same rivers is made clear by the investigations of two doctors who have recently been studying the reaction of salt-water fish to various conditions of environment. It appears, says a writer in Popular Science Monthly, that herring can detect differences in heat and cold as small as a quarter of a degree, or less. They also know when even the slightest trace of acid or alkali is present in the water. Some scientists have even proposed that herring and other fish be used to detect the presence of chemicals in the water, just as canaries are used to discover traces of poisonous gas in mines.

Patriotism has a louder call than the still, small voice of conscience.

SATIN HATS, SPRING STYLE

Touches of High-Colored Braid and Combinations of Velvet Promise to Be Quite the Vogue.

For early spring wear, according to the bulletin of the Retail Millinery Association of America, the opinion is expressed that satin hats with touches of braid in high colors, or satin hats combined with velvet, will be quite the vogue.

For immediate use white hats are coming to the fore. Sometimes they are of white satin combined with white panne velvet, while others show white satin with facings of black velvet.

White bengaline, a material that has not been used for some time, is coming back into style. It is seen in hats made entirely of this material, as well as in hats that combine bengaline with black velvet facings. All of the bengaline hats seen are tailored effects, and are trimmed with seal fur, balls, pom-poms and bands.

Bustle hats in white panne velvet with gold trimmings are seen, as are white panne velvet shapes, combined with silver cloth and trimmed with small silver flowers.

The bulletin also says that fur and fur combination hats are doing well in the high-priced goods, while in cheaper hats there is a demand for French helmet effects in panne velvet combined with satin in white and colors. Nutria fur is used to decorate the edges.

SCARFS OF TULLE AND BEADS

Flesh Colored Material Afford Attractive Evening Wear as Does Black With Jet.

There are wonderful scarfs of flesh-colored tulle and bead embroidery for evening wear, says a fashion writer, the tulle foundation almost invisible over decolletee save where the folds deepen and the fine traceries of crystal run riot in the border and on the ends.

Black tulle with jet is used for other exquisite scarfs more delicate in effect than those of other seasons, and in some cases both flesh color and black scarfs are so cut that they have a suggestion of deep cape form around back and shoulders, though they have the usual straight wide scarf ends.

For the hair ornaments to be worn with evening toilettes one must choose the thing that is most becoming, but there is a variety from which to choose. The fine jeweled band of fillet across the forehead is as popular as ever, but with high-piled hair combs have come into their own again and one sees some extremely effective high coiffures with jeweled combs of Spanish allure. Small jeweled combs often hold the strands of hair too, after a time of frowning upon such effects, and there are, of course, many audacious egret arrangements, though this sort of thing seems less common with evening coiffure than it is in some seasons.

KIMONO SMOCK OF LINEN

Wonderfully attractive is this deep-rose linen kimono smock. The banding at the bottom and the edging on the pockets are of cut-out work, with iridescent satin in yellow, green and purple, held in place with a black long and short stitch. Kimono means ease, comfort and a spirit of rest for the wearer if it is the proper kimono. This kimono lives up to the full meaning of the garment.

FASHION'S FANCIES

Hudson seal and velvet are beautiful combined.

Black velvet skirts are worn with spangled and embroidered blouses. Soldier and civilian—man, woman and child—all wear the wrist watch.

Black tulle banded with vivid blue tulle makes a charming combination. Brown shoes are coming in strongly, because of the military trend.

The mandarin sleeve was strongly featured at the Paris openings. Brocades are seen in two tones of a given color, such as taupe or gray.

Sammycloth, satins, broadcloths and pique each and all are favored vest materials.

New Shades in Neckwear.

The newest shades in satin neckwear are tea and coral; the first a delicate shade just off the white, the other a deep rose.

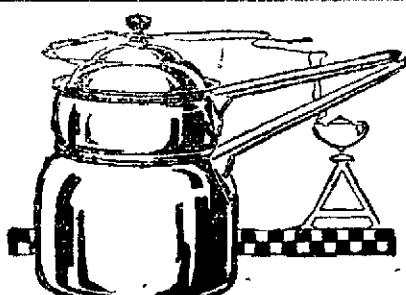

Be sure to see our displays of Gift Suggestions. There are many answers here to "what shall I give them?" Many welcome gifts for the toilet—for traveling needs. Don't wait until the choice selections are gone. Come early.

"That's just what I wanted—a Brownie." You couldn't have chosen a more appropriate gift for him. The Folding Brownie is an Auto-graphic, like the Kodaks. They are built for hard service—easy to focus and simple to operate.

GIVE him a watch, or books, or money—but nothing will please a boy like a Kodak or Brownie camera. It's a Christmas gift for all the year. Besides, the picture story of the good times with his playmates—pictures of the winter fun both indoors and out—will be interesting always, and increase in value with each succeeding year.

ALADDIN ALUMINUM Makes Ideal Christmas Gifts

"Merry Christmas" rings joyously in our ears on only one day in all the year. The gifts which we give and gifts which we receive are tokens which remain throughout the year—and each year finds us giving gifts with more practical value.

This year we know of no other gift with more practical value than Aladdin Aluminum. What home life would not care for these beautiful and conveniently made Aladdin Cooking Utensils. Contrast Aladdin's finish inside and out, with all others—it is just like silver and you can keep it so.

Buying the best food cheaply isn't the only way to practice economy in the kitchen. The right utensil is just as important as the right roast. You don't buy kettles every day as you do roasts—the kettle has to last a generation. That's why we recommend Aladdin Aluminum.

To help introduce Aladdin utensils to you, we have arranged with the Aladdin factory to sell a limited number of the popular Aladdin Double Boilers. Aladdin double boilers save heat and fuel. They have an extra large water capacity—less danger of boiling dry. Look at the round handles that fit the hand. Notice how close they are together—lift it all with one hand. These double boilers sold regularly at $2.10.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.

Tonight.
Manager Fennberg, always on the alert for the welfare of his patrons, has arranged a special program for tonight in connection with the ten reel program that is offered as an added special extra ordinary feature. Arthur Williams of Warren, Ohio, who is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Prof. and Mrs. Everett Johnston of Granville, will tell of his experiences in fighting with the 3rd Canadian Regiment. Mr. Williams saw some of the hardest fighting, receiving some terrible wounds, in fact he is minus an arm, an eye and has other numerous hurts—he was laid up in the hospital for months and has received an honorable discharge. He will tell some truths not known in regard to the enemies—his story is remarkable and you hear how it is to serve in the trenches—get it from one who knows. Mr. Williams will speak at 8 p. m. as possible, therefore the management requests all who can to be seated at that time.

The Call of the East.
At the Auditorium today and tomorrow comes Sessue Hayakawa in "The Call of the East" the story tells of Alan Hepburn and his half sister Sheila the children of Adam Hepburn, who made his fortune in Japan, leaving his children fairly prosperous upon his death. Alan has a position in a bank at Tokio and is already established there when the story opens. Sheila, back in "the States" longs to be with him and clings to the few Japanese customs and possessions that she still has, including a tiny image of Kwannon, Goddess of Mercy, which was watch certain parts of the film very closely you can "hear" every word spoken by the star.

JESSE HAYAKAWA

As guide to those who care to see for themselves, you should "listen" to Hart at the time with this subtitle is flashed on the screen:

"You don't have to look any further for that bandit."

At the point the last act of the big photograph begins, "Bill" Hart is speaking, and is just giving himself up to the bandit.

Vigilantes. From that point on try to catch as many words as possible as they are spoken by the star. Hart is shown here, and if you are as successful at "lip-reading" as the Cincinnati movie club will be started. Cincinnati has started one an subsequently they are getting double the enjoyment out of motion picture, for besides seeing they are also enabled to "hear" the performers.

Auditorium Notes.
Arthur C. Williams, who speaks at the Auditorium tonight, has been royally entertained in Granville, where he is visiting relatives. He is just back from the trenches, having been honorably discharged owing to the loss of an arm and eye. This is a big feature for the Auditorium and should crowd this movie playhouse. He will speak at 8 p. m.

Hans Und Fritz the cartoon musical comedy that comes to the Auditorium Xmas day, is said to be even better than the Katzenjammer Kids and it's Captain Kidd and his treasure that the two jokey Dutch Kiddies start after? and it's this wild goose chase among other situations that make the special color of the show. A matinee and night performance will be given.

Nothing could be more appropriate than a native Japanese act in the story of "The Call of the East," at the Auditorium today and tomorrow. Sessue Hayakawa in this story of the land of the Mikado, is said to give a bit of acting that is wonderful.

Paul Bowser holds a wrestling bout at this playhouse Thursday, with the Philharmonic Concert Wednesday, with Wil-

her father's. The aunt with whom she makes her home thoroughly disapproves of Sheila's fondness for things Japanese, and tries to discourage her from ever going to that country.

"The Call" at last proves too much for Sheila, and she starts out to her brother arriving just in time to take part in the great Feast of the Lanterns, a Japanese holiday. During this feast, her brother who has been looking heavily at cards is invited to the home of the Japanese sweetheart and carried off under his very nose. Not that he had been in love with the girl himself, but that a Japanese always looks upon a woman as his own. Talkada merely says with true Oriental stoicism, "It will be remembered."

Philharmonic Orchestra.
It may not be known that Richard Wagner whose wonderful Overture, "Rienzi" will be played here by the New York Philharmonic orchestra as a feature of its concert on December 19th at the Auditorium theatre, was as ardent a political revolutionist as he was a musical one. Whatever possibilities of a revolution may exist in Germany now, there was one in 1848. It was crushed, to be sure, by the Prussian "united fist." Among the liberty-lovers who fled from Prussian wrath were Carl Schurz and Richard Wagner. The former came to America and became one of our noblest and greatest citizens. Wagner seriously considered coming here (no doubt he would have if musical conditions had been what they are now, or even what they were when his great disciple, Anton Bruckner, came in 1880. If Wagner had remained in Germany he would probably have been put to death by the Prussians. Wagner made speeches and wrote articles in favor of freedom. In one speech he even spoke of women's suffrage. "We want assigned to every adult human being, born in the land, the unconditional right of vote and franchise; the poorer the needier he is, the more natural is his claim to share in the rights of his country. It is to shield him against poverty and neediness." The word translated "human being" is even in the original as well as including women as well as men.

In the same speech Wagner said: "If Prussia will to the sake of the Prussian, do not a vain idea that soon will be exposed." In Austria still to remain in his country it receives the only measure of holding a municipal congress of lands together, an impediment to the Prussian, when the latter will shield him against poverty and neediness." This celebrated orchestra will be heard here in a wonderful concert and should be greeted by a crowded house. Seats are now selling.

The Cold Deck.
Movie actors and actresses had better keep a close watch on what they say when in photographs in the future. A jacking by the executives with which movie fans joined in the "lip-reading contest" which was held at the Grand theatre, Cincinnati, when the latter and William S. Hart photographed "The Cold Deck" was presented, will soon be able to "hear" what's being said by the actors.

GRAND.

A great scene of thrills is filmed at the close of "Sunlight's Last Raid," where a band of outlaws swoops down on a ranch house determined to kill every occupant, women and children included. From window and loop hole the defenders put up a brave fight, shooting down a score of Mexicans until their ammunition is almost exhausted and nearly everyone is suffering wounds.

Their fate seems sealed when the rancher's daughter slips from the house unscathed by the bandits, and being across the prairie returns with a troop of U. S. cavalry just as the outlaws set fire to the house. The latter are easily routed and flee to the mountains where they run into a band of vigilantes and are exterminated, and their leader killed. In this greater Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction at the Grand theatre, Monday and Tuesday, the part of Katherine is taken by Miss Mary Anderson, and the remainder of the cast includes V. Howard, Alfred Whitman, Fred Burns and A. Garcia.

MUSICAL TREAT OF SEASON BOOKED FOR WEDNESDAY EVE.

Newark is to have the musical treat of the season in the appearance at the Auditorium theatre on Wednesday evening December 19 of the New York Philharmonic orchestra under Josef Stransky's leadership which makes its initial appearance under the auspices of the Civic Music Committee of the Women's Federated Clubs.

This is the old Theodore Thomas orchestra with which the theatre was formerly of Newark was associated. This musical organization is the oldest in the country and every one of its seventy five members is an American citizen. It is rarely that the Philharmonic will appear in as small a city as Newark but as they play in Columbus the night before an engagement was secured for this city.

There will be two solo numbers on the program: a violinist of rare ability while Elsie Hirschberg Deermont Newark's favorite contralto will sing "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice." Miss Deermont will lead the audience with full orchestral accompaniment in the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Please learn the words of your national song. This concert is a benefit for our Licking County Boys at Camp Sherman for their Christmas festivities for this reason there will be no war tax on the tickets. Seats are now on sale at the Auditorium Box Office. Tickets $1.50, $1.00, 50c.

BURNSIDE NOW LIEUT. COLONEL OF 26TH INFANTRY

William A. Burnside of Alexandria, is now lieutenant colonel of the Twenty-sixth United States Infantry now in France. He has been promoted from lieutenant to captain, then to major and now holds next to the highest rank in the regiment. On September 14th the Advocate mailed a Licking county soldiers' medal to Colonel Burnside, who was then addressed as major. In acknowledging receipt of the medal he made no reference to the promotion but the letter was passed as censored and stamped "Lt. Col. W. Burnside, 26th Inf." He writes to the Advocate, saying under date of November 25th:

"The medal somewhat delayed, reached me today and you have my thanks. The idea of distributing them is a good one and reminds me that though away from Licking county for over 23 years that it is still my domicile and that I have not been forgotten. We probably have more ahead of us here in plenty. But it is a correct cause and you there as well as we here must be patient, and make the necessary sacrifice for a victorious end of the war, no matter how long it takes."

Washington, Dec. 17.—The house has passed the following special bill of Civil war veterans for Congressman Ashbrook of Ohio: Albert Holmes, Mt. Vernon, $40; Frank London, Danville, $50; Charles Bishop, Centerville, $24; James K. Jennings, Newark, $50; Edward Walker, Mansfield, $40; George Butterbaugh, Butler, $30; George Russell, Butler, $50, a month.

You never can tell. Even the man who expects to be rewarded in heaven grows up to the cashier's window on pay-day.

HE WANTED TO TAKE GLASS EYE TO KAISER

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 17.—Paul Gary of Anderson, Ind., is all American, with the exception of a glass eye. The substitute optic is alien. Gary tried to enlist in the United States Marine corps at the recruiting station here, but was rejected when his infirmity was discovered. "Didn't you know that the loss of an eye would prevent your enlisting?" asked the sergeant. "I thought it might," explained Gary, "but this glass blinker is the only part of me that was made in Germany, and I want to take it back." He was advised to mail it.

XMAS FUND FOR SOLDIER BOYS GROWS RAPIDLY

The fund which is being raised to provide some sort of Christmas cheer for the Licking county boys in Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., and Camp Pike, Ark., has been greatly augmented in the last few days by the reports of captains in the various factories. The solicitors will work up until Tuesday evening, Dec. 18, when they will turn in all monies and final arrangements will be made by the committee.

Those in charge of the fund are working through Elk lodges in the three cities, in an endeavor to secure their assistance in arranging for a big holiday dinner. At Camp Pike the boys will enjoy a big feed prepared at one of the leading hostilities in Little Rock. The menu will be on a par with that at the other two cantonments. At Camp Sheridan arrangements are in the making for a big dinner at one of the public halls in Montgomery with a toastmaster and speaking by the boys. They will probably have their glee club present to assist in enlivening the occasion.

At Camp Sherman the boys will enjoy good things provided by the people of Newark and Licking county. Treasurer Emmet McDaniel has enough foodstuff on hand to make a creditable showing but states that he can take care of a great deal more. It will be sent overland to Chillicothe on a big motor truck and an experienced chef will prepare the dinner, which will take place in the Elks' home, the big banquet hall being used and which will seat 195 persons very comfortably. A number from this city will attend and a good time is anticipated when the boys all get together.

Chairman George Graesser stated today that his committee was meeting with the greatest of success and with the hearty co-operation of many people over the country. He has been in correspondence with a number of the officers and with many of the boys themselves and all are eager for the big feast which will be provided them. As one of the boys expressed it in his letter to Mr. Graesser, "It will be a reminder of the big-hearted folks back home and if we cannot be with them for the holiday season our thoughts will be with them when we sit down to the good things which they have provided for us."

FIRST CASH PRIZE GIVEN MR. HAUGHEY OF N. FOURTH ST.

Edwin Haughey, 199 North Fourth street.
Ralph J. Davis, 98 Elmwood avenue.
Mrs. Martha M. Swartz, 331 West Church street.
W. B. Wingerter, 191 West Church street.

Here are the prize-winners to whom The Advocate is today mailing checks. The first prize goes to Edwin Haughey of North Fourth street. The prizes are given according to promises to those who submitted the best news items or "tips" on "new stories" during the past week. The Advocate is glad to have its readers telephone or send news items for publication. In telephoning, call Automatic numbers 23122, 23125, 23121 or 23127, the numbers in the city editor's department. If one number "rings busy" try another. The Advocate has a private branch telephone exchange with several trunk lines leading to the central office so that if one of the numbers is busy usually one is able to get connected with the news department by calling another number.

Don't jump at conclusions. Even the Jersey commuter who sees his forehead giving him the slip should hesitate to do that.

Christmas Gifts

For my family a Detroit Electric

Today's Car of Utility and Economy

At this time we are booking a large number of orders for Detroit Electrics from men who wish delivery made to their families Christmas morning.

From every standpoint of beauty, pleasure, and utility, a Detroit Electric is the finest gift your family could receive. It is the one motor car each member can drive with perfect safety and absolute freedom from nervousness. It is big and roomy, yet it handles with amazing ease and agility.

It is equally able whether skimming lightly over the boulevard or ploughing sturdily thru deep-drifted snow. Its great power—far smoother and quieter than that of any gas car—is ample for every emergency.

It will travel 80 to 100 miles on a single charge of the battery. And for winter motoring it has no equal among present day automobiles. It has no radiator to freeze and no cylinders to chill.

Leave it out in the cold as long as you like, yet it will start instantly the very second you release the power. That is true service. Four beautiful models. Have we your order yet for Christmas day delivery to your family?

The speed and mileage of the modern Detroit Electric will exceed your daily requirements.

The Twenty Payment Plan

An original and copyrighted plan of lending money on Furniture, Pianos, etc. The following features make the Twenty-Payment Plan most desirable and absolutely fair to the borrower.

- 1.—It permits twenty full months to repay your loan, should you wish it.
- 2.—It relieves you of the responsibility of promising to pay large payments.
- 3.—However, the borrower if he desires can pay in part or in full at any time.
- 4.—Interest is charged at the legal rate only for the actual number of months loan is carried.
- 5.—You can pay in full in one month or twenty months and the interest is charged only on the actual amount of cash still outstanding.
- 6.—In other words: You are under no obligation to carry the loan any longer than you desire. The faster you pay the less it costs.

hardt, Alfred Oberfield, Frank O'Shaughnessy, Ray Wintermute, Jesse Chilcote, Ed Fallon, Ralph Adkins, Earl Forbes, Lonnie Hull, Fred Howell and Eddie Couch.

Parochial Schools Closed.
The parochial schools were closed today until Jan. 2, 1918, for the Christmas vacation.

Position As Watchman.
J. B. Stoner has accepted a position as watchman at the Second street crossing. Mr. Stoner is an old railroad man, well acquainted with all the signals, and will make a valuable watchman for the company in its endeavor to protect human life and property.

Trains Still Late.
Because of the severe cold weather trains are still reported late.
Early B & O. and Pennsylvania trains were several hours late this morning. The engineers say that the snow gathering on the rails and freezing makes it impossible to make up any time and also makes them fall behind more than ever.

Could Not Fill Pulpit.
Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett of the First Presbyterian church was not able to fill his pulpit Sunday, because of serious illness.

R. Evans as county representative of the R. L. Dollings Co. Mr. Evans resigned his position to take up Y.
M. C. A. work at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O.

In Aviation Service.
Mr. Clayton Brown, son of J. C.
Brown the East End grocer, enlisted as a motor truck driver in the Aviation Signal Corps Saturday at Columbus and will probably leave this week for Texas.

Rumor Unfounded.
Rumor had it that the Consumers Brewing company had a large number of cars of coal on hand. But inquiry disclosed the fact that the company distributed a car of coal last week, and has left but a small amount sufficient to run the boilers.
They are expecting a car next week, which will probably be distributed about the town.

Birth Announcement.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl A.
Welant at their home east of the city, a daughter. Both mother and child doing as well as could be expected.

Funeral of Mrs. S. S. Brown.
The funeral of Mrs. S. S. Brown was held today from the residence at 78 North Cedar street at 2 o'clock.
Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Charles H. Marvin.
Charles H. Marvin, died suddenly at his home, 161 Columbia street, Saturday night at 11 o'clock of acute dilatation of the heart. Mr. Marvin had been in failing health but was up and around Saturday. In the evening after retiring he attempted to turn over in bed and death came instantly.

He has been an employee of the Ohio Electric railway company and is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. A. T. Halsell and Mrs. A.
B. Long and one son, Ralph of the home. He was a member of the Central Church of Christ.

No services were held here but the body was shipped to Lebanon, Ind., at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, accompanied by the family where funeral services will be held. Interment will be made at Lebanon.

Funeral of Mrs. Sunderland.
The remains of Mrs. Mary Sunderland who died Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas.
Grill, 133 South Third street, were shipped to Mt. Vernon, to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Cochran, where services will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral of Miss Harriet Moore.
The funeral of Miss Harriet Moore was held this morning at the home of James Moore, 105 Clinton street.
Interment was made at Utica, Ohio.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for kindness shown, and for the tokens of sympathy expressed and for the beautiful flowers sent to our home at the death of our beloved mother, Mrs.
Mary O'Neil.—The Children. 1*

HARVEST FOR THIEVES.
Chicago, Dec. 17.—Thieves and robbers have profited to the extent of more than $2,000,000 by their operations in Chicago since the first of last January, according to police figures, made public today. This is said to be the largest harvest ever gathered here in a year by criminals.

There have been 14,000 burglaries of house, twenty pay roll robberies and bank robberies.

NEWARK TELEPHONE COMPANY ADDS 375 NEW SUBSCRIBERS TO EXCHANGE AUTOMATIC RURAL SERVICE BEGINS

In the last 90 days the Newark telephone has added 375 subscribers to its already extensive system, and now has a total of 6500 instruments in service. About 5000 of these are connected with the Newark exchange. Subscribers will please cut out this list and paste it in their telephone directory. The new automatic rural service is being cut over into service, 300 of these subscribers already having been changed, and the new directories for this service have been distributed to the public, both in Newark and Granville. There are still, however, about 100 subscribers to change over to automatic service, and when this is done the Newark and Granville plants will be full automatic, both as to city and rural telephones.

BAD CASES OF RHEUMATISM MAY BE CURED

Well Known Farmer Permanently Relieved Tells Story of How To Do It For the Benefit of Humanity.

Anyone Troubled With Rheumatic Pains Or Blood Troubles Should Read This.

Here is the story of how a well known West Virginia farmer got permanent relief from rheumatism and swelling in his joints after suffering with this trouble due to uric acid for over three years.

"I suffered with rheumatic pains in my joints and especially in my knee joints for about three years. The pains were awful at times and the joints would become very much swollen, but I started taking Acid-Iron Mineral and five bottles completely cured me and I haven't any symptoms of the disease since using it, and that was a long time ago. The pains gradually left me as I kept on using Acid-Iron Mineral until I was permanently cured. I surely recommend it now because of one thing I am sure. It cured me," writes T. B. Hamrick, a well known farmer of Bernardstown, W. Va.

Acid-Iron Mineral is the highly concentrated and very powerful product of a natural medicinal iron deposit without any alcohol or narcotics added. It is stronger, cheaper and a better iron medicine. A few drops mixed in a glass of water makes a pleasant, powerful dose to cleanse and purify the blood, tone the system up and drive out uric acid. Druggists all have it. Lots of people in this state recommend it. Get a bottle today.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of the Advocate I received your medal some time ago, but have hardly had a chance to write. This intensive training is keeping all of us pretty busy, but it is a good way to keep warm. Ohio is not the only cold place on earth, for we have done fine to keep warm at all. We have stoves in all our tents and mess halls, so we are as comfortable as could be expected. Some of the boys are quite disgruntled just now, as we were told we could go home for Christmas, and some, in fact, about 90 per cent, wrote home for money, and now we are told that no furloughs will be given, on account of the raincoat needing the coal to carry supplies, etc. It does go rather hard. I often think about old Newark, and I admit I sometimes wish I was back for a short time anyway. The regiment I am in, the 136th, F. A., get motors for everything, as we are heavy artillery while the others are light.

I am not sure who was elected mayor, but Gus Atherton has my best wishes, for he got my vote. Of course I don't know, or anyone else for that matter, but I believe we will leave here soon after the first of the year, and we, too, will have a funder in the pie. I am sure that we all want to be there for the grand rush early in the spring, even though it will be no picnic, but we don't expect that. I sure believe that if Kaiser Bill could get a squirt of this husky bunch of representatives from old "Ohio," he would have a heart failure.—Yours very truly, Herbert G. Smith, Supply Company, 136th Artillery, Montgomery, Camp Sheridan, Alabama.

P. S. All the Newark boys send their best wishes to every one in Newark.

Dec. 14, 1917, Dear Mother: Last Sunday on my way back from the Post Exchange I stopped for the first time at the Red Cross building. It is very wonderful indeed, and when you consider that it was erected in a little over ten days, you realize that the accomplishment is a little short of marvelous. It is quite a good looking, large, lodge building, its floor plan a cross. In the wings are the entering lobby, the restaurant, and two living rooms and around the center rectangle at the intersection of the cross, is a balcony overlooking the hall below. This main building is only the lodge house. Around it in a quadrangle are the houses with rooms for guests that have been built by the Masons, Dr. A. H., etc. The atmosphere of the whole place is wonderful; it is homelike, refined, serene and when you enter you have somewhat the same feeling as when you enter a church; one of respect for the sacredness of home ties that this lodge symbolizes. It is so very fine that it is hard to adequately express the degree of excellence it holds. You must come down and see for yourself.

Won't you take it upon yourself to get at least five other women besides yourself as members of the Ohio Women's Auxiliary? Best love from JOHN.

MOTHER'S HAPPY THOUGHT WORKED OUT PERFECTLY

Fretful, Sleepless Child Quickly Soothed by Nerv-Worth.

The following Nerv-Worth story told by Druggist E. C. Myers of Washington, D. C., who has sold several thousand bottles of this famous family tonic during the past year, is striking proof of the fact that Nerv-Worth is a royal friend of ailing little folks:

"I have known it (Nerv-Worth) being given to young babies for colic and other stomach and bowel troubles with perfect results. To cite an instance:

"A baby, 16 months old, would sleep during the day and keep awake during the night. This continued for some time and the parents were nearly exhausted. It also had considerable trouble with its stomach and bowels and was cross most of the time. The family physician was appealed to but without any satisfactory result. One night the mother gave it a dose of Nerv-Worth and in a few minutes baby was asleep and slept well the entire night. This was repeated each night and in a few nights baby came to know the Nerv-Worth bottle, would take it in its arms after getting the dose, and go to sleep. The child improved in every way. Slept better, had no digestive or bowel trouble and became very happy and contented. Its parents are very grateful for Nerv-Worth."

J. Evans, druggist, sells Nerv-Worth in Newark. Your dollar back if this tonic does not help YOUR child or you. 12-14-17
